FALL 2011
SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

THE JOHN P. AND LINDA A. BEESON IVY TECH COMMUNITY COLLEGE/INDIANA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Indiana University School of Continuing Studies is pleased to announce the creation of a new scholarship endowed specifically for Ivy Tech graduates. The John P. and Linda A. Beeson Ivy Tech Community College/Indiana University School of Continuing Studies Scholarship will be available to students who have completed their associate degree at Ivy Tech and who want to pursue a Bachelor of General Studies Degree from any Indiana University campus or at a distance.

TO QUALIFY:

- Students must hold an associate degree from Ivy Tech Community College.
- Students must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale.
- Students must have applied for admission to the Bachelor of General Studies Degree program at any Indiana University campus or at a distance.
- Students must be legal residents of the United States.
- Students must have a demonstrated financial need.

IU employees or their relatives are not eligible for this scholarship.

For more information about this scholarship, including application procedures, visit scs.indiana.edu, email Marlene Gardner at mjgardne@indiana.edu, or call 800.334.1011.